Each youth registrant (both novices and ambassadors) will have a chaperone. Rally organizers and volunteers are responsible for safety and discipline during all conference events. They should be informed of any emergency. Youth participants must follow the instructions of and cooperate with their designated chaperone. Should a participant violate this or other regulations during the rally, his or her chaperone and/or parents will be contacted immediately and asked to arrange for the youth's transportation home.

2. Participation

Participation in all scheduled activities is expected. Participants must stay on-site throughout the entire youth rally. In case of an emergency, a participant can leave only after being checked out with the rally coordinator in person by a parent, legal guardian or group chaperone.

3. Illegal and inappropriate items

Under no circumstances may alcohol, cigarettes, illegal drugs or weapons be possessed or used by participants at the rally.
